

The background is a collage of various shades of red and orange, featuring overlapping geometric shapes like triangles and polygons. Overlaid on these shapes are several wavy, white, hand-drawn lines that create a sense of movement and depth. The overall aesthetic is mid-century modern or bohemian.

*I will go
find my place
among the
doves
where the sea
is ever constant
and the sky is ever blue
and peace is lettered in yellow
clouds.
Where morning beckons
onward and
I am my master,

Our life is full
when we are together.
Our voices blend in
off-key rhyme.
Our eyes are filled
with laughter as we skip and laugh
and sing out child tunes.
The air is soft
with remember whens
as we share yesterday's sorrows and
yesterday's joys.
And when we say
good-bye,
our tears will flow
in a common fall,
which enriches the
seeds of friendship.

Class officers and mascot Georgie keep the Class of '70 united.

Seniors give Sophs a standing ovation after a performance of "The Fatal Quest."

Seniors display their hidden talent to their little sisters in a Christmas skit.

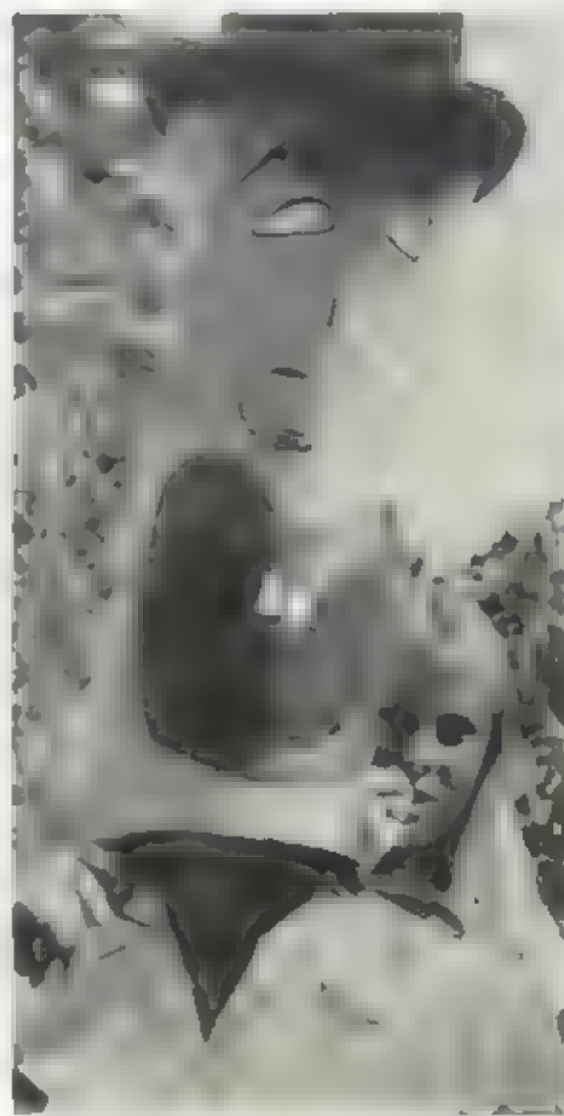

The Smiling Seniors

Eat hearty, Jackie, the diet starts tomorrow!!

Bearing gifts and good wishes, the Seniors gather outside Sister Snell's office to sing a few Christmas Carols.

Could this be a NEW Student?

SENIORS RAH!!

Mary's new boyfriend... Snoopy.

Senior class cheerleaders... Rose Rouse, Kathy Troncy, Mary Lucido, Mona Garcia, and Nancy Meyer

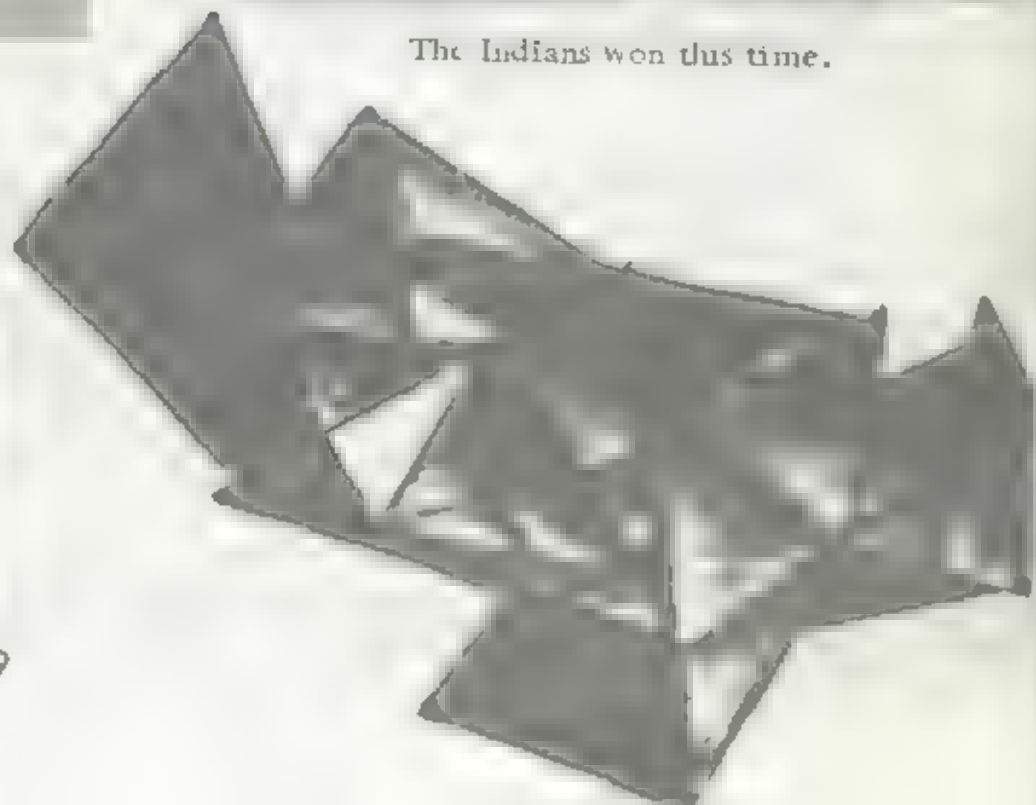

Senior class volleyball team

The Indians won this time.

It's not a tradition... It's TALENT!!

We say thanks to :

The American Yearbook Co. and Mr. Binkowski for lending a reassuring hand when we needed it most Busco-Nestor Studio for developing our film.

Sister Mary Frances for her ideas, laughter and patience during the First Semester.

Sister Mary Dorothea for giving us very patient guidance as our Advisor during the Second Semester.

The students of OLP who created this unique year.

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over,
and it is no longer dawn.
The noon tide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fullerday, and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

Kahlil Gibran
